Sunday Business Post, October 9th:

Book: Country affair
Horse racing, artisan food and try pursuits are on the cards at the 5 Point-to-Point Country Fair at the Old Racecourse in Dowth, Sunday, October 30. On the eve of while the Devenish Charity Ball guests raise funds for the Farmy while enjoying a feast laid on by the film-starred Richard Corrihan. Tickets take place at the elegant vth Hall; for tickets see devenish.com.

Drink: a sky-high cocktail
Starting tomorrow, The Irish Cocktail Fest will set highballs shaking across the country, as scores of watering holes champion our new-found obsession with tipples less ordinary. All the details, including venues, events and updates, can be found at greatirishbeverages.com, but if you fancy a faster taste, try this stylish cocktail recipe, as provided to us by the Camden Exchange on Dublin's Camden Street (camdenexchange.com).

Kalak Aviation cocktail

Ingredients
35ml Kalak vodka
15ml Violette liqueur
15ml Maraschino liqueur
20ml lemon juice

Method
Fill a coupe or martini glass with some ice. Place all ingredients into an iced shaker. Seal it, and shake hard for ten seconds. Remove ice from the glass and strain the cocktail. Garnish with a Maraschino cherry.

Eye tattoos okay, we get that it's edgy and all, but still, Cara Delevingne's new tattoo - a pair of eyes in the back of her neck - is kinda creepy.

French security a security breach meant that reality TV star Kim Kardashian was held at gunpoint in a luxury residence in Paris and robbed of jewellery worth millions of euro.

An Oasis reunion Liam Gallagher has been openly telling the press in recent days that he'd love to see the band back together, but Noel isn't biting. Still, fans can relive their glory years by heading to see the new Supersonic documentary, at selected cinemas now...
